

Towsley Hikes:

April:

Sunday, April 1      6:30-8:30pm
Almost a full moon hike: Why do frogs talk at night?

Saturday, April 21    8-10am
Birding at Towsley: What birds eat depends on their beaks.

Saturday, April 28    8-10am
Wildflowers at Towsley: What we see is not what the bee sees.

May:

Tuesday, May 1      7-9pm
Almost a full moon hike: Owls have silent flight.

Saturday, May 12     8-10am
Wildflowers at Towsley: Flowers are designed to attract visitors.

Saturday, May 19     8-10am
Birding at Towsley

June:

Saturday, June 9      7:30-9:30am
Welcome to the Towsley Shopping Mall: Native Americans use plants to support their everyday needs.

Saturday, June 16     8-10am
Birding at Towsley: Raptors use their eyes to survive.

Friday, June 29      7:30-9:30am
Almost a full moon hike: Animals use other senses besides their sight at night.

Interested in leading a hike in the future? Contact Wendy Langhans at (310) 858-7272 x 115

All programs meet at the front entrance to Towsley Canyon.
Towsley Canyon is located on The Old Road, about ¼ mile south-west of the Calgrove exit off the I-5.